Yet the draw to this man pique's Denise Matthew's interest. Sort of. Denise doesn't have time for a lot of silly dating games--men tend to want her undivided attention, but she has stuff to do. Intrigued by Denise--Chase's wolfly beast roars to life under his skin, in a way he's never fathomed before. Was this what happened to his brothers David, Neil and Caleb? As a fire fighter, Chase had seen a lot, but this was different from anything else he knew. One night, while playing pool with Chase, a stranger approaches Denise, giving her a magical curse that could destroy the world. Chase's beast roars to life, ready to protect her, but it might be too late. Denise has to be willing to believe that there's more to the world than humans, to get through this trial by fire.
